

Notes from Maggie Toussaint

NEWS! I signed with Dawn Dowdle of Blue Ridge Literary to represent my new paranormal mystery series. I'm happy to have Dawn representing me. BUBBA DONE IT is the first book in my dreamwalker series. I'm editing the second book now.

I'm still hopeful Worldwide Mystery will offer for the mass market paperback rights to IN FOR A PENNY. Meanwhile, Five Star asked for revisions to ON THE NICKEL, which now has a truly despicable villain. They start acquiring for their 2011 line in July. I'm thinking positive.

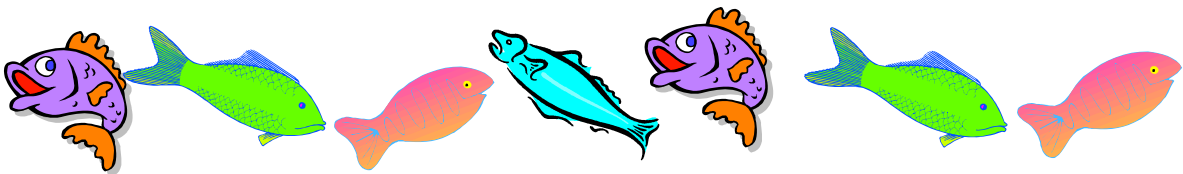

Do you recall those idyllic childhood days of fishing? The sun beat down on you, and you plunked your foot in the water to stay cool. Some days you fish one line, others you drop a couple in and watch the clouds drift across the sky. This summer I'm dangling story lines in editorial waters, waiting for a publisher to strike.

Don't miss the group signing with First Coast Romance Writers at Borders, Jacksonville, on Sunday, July 12, 1-3 p.m. (Many thanks to Alyssa Day for the invite.)

I saved the best for last! NO SECOND CHANCE won 2008 Book Cover of the Year!!!! Thank you so much, everyone, for your votes. I am thrilled Days End Farm Horse Rescue and this book continue to have such broad exposure. I couldn't have done it without you.
